

Community Planning in the North West
Millennium Forum – Wednesday 10 January 2007

COMMUNITY PLANNING—IN NORTHERN IRELAND:

1. What are the most important messages coming out of this morning's presentation?
2. Looking to a Northern Ireland model, what special features should such a model incorporate or take into account?
3. What issues need to be addressed or further considered?

COMMUNITY PLANNING—IN THE NORTH WEST:

4. Who needs to be involved? How should they be engaged?
5. How should Community Planning be taken forward? And, anticipating new structures and statutory arrangements, what can we do now?
6. How can we further explore and develop the processes involved?
